Guide on Responding to DDoS Attacks and DDoS Guidance for Federal Agencies

- CISA, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and the Multi-State Information Sharing and Analysis Center (MS-ISAC) have released a publication: Understanding and Responding to Distributed Denial-of-Service Attacks to provide organizations with proactive steps to reduce the likelihood and impact of distributed denial-of-service (DDoS) attacks. The guidance is for both network defenders and leaders to help them understand and respond to DDoS attacks, which can cost an organization time, money, and reputational damage.
- A PDF of the guidance can be found here: https://www.cisa.gov/sites/default/files/publications/understanding-and-responding-to-ddos-attacks_508c.pdf

CISA Releases Four Industrial Control Systems Advisories

ICS news October

CISA has released four (4) Industrial Control Systems (ICS) advisories on October 27, 2022. These advisories provide timely information about current security issues, vulnerabilities, and exploits surrounding ICS. CISA encourages users and administrators to review the newly released ICS advisory for technical details and mitigations:

- ICSA-22-300-01 Rockwell Automation FactoryTalk Alarm and Events Server Rockwell Automation FactoryTalk Alarm and Events Server | CISA
- ICSA-22-300-02 SAUTER Controls moduWeb | CISA
- ICSA-22-300-03 Rockwell Automation Stratix Devices Containing Cisco IOS | CISA
- ICSA-22-300-04 VTScada | CISA

CISA strongly urges all organizations to reduce their exposure to cyberattacks by prioritizing timely remediation of Catalog vulnerabilities as part of their vulnerability management practice.

CISA has added 11 new vulnerabilities to its Known Exploited Vulnerabilities Catalog in the month of October. These types of vulnerabilities are a frequent attack vector for malicious cyber actors and pose significant risk to the federal enterprise.

ASRG

Why?

When you entered vehicle cybersecurity, don't you wish...

- you had a community?
- you had resources?

When you were solving hard problems in vehicle cybersecurity, don't you wish...

- you could refer to talks that might support you in solving it?
- you could talk to others from around the world to see how their perspective might shape your own?
- you could draw insight from people from completely different backgrounds - car hacker, academic, professional, etc.?

ASRG

Why?

Sounds kind of like the Auto ISAC...

but it's a focus on a different audience.
